LOCAL HISTORY.

Maj. Amos Hills, His Residence in Bethel.

Incidental Memoranda—By Leonard B. Chapman. Number 100.

IN THREE PART—PART THREE CONTINUED AND CONCLUDED. George Chapman next united in marriage Sept. 24, 1837, with Miss Melvina Amanda Richardson, a daughter of Ebenezer Richardson who resided some three miles above the covered bridge on the northern side of the Androscoggin river, the way passing the old Rev. Ellipha Chapman homestead; the Richardson farm now owned and occupied by one Fred Howard. Mr. Richardson, it is stated, was a Congregational church member, he and his second wife joining in 1830, and tradition brands him as a "good man" and a "church deacon" but I fail to find a record to support the last traditional story.

The family record appearing in the Bethel history is said to be imperfect, as it does not mention the name of Melvina A., nor that of her sister, Nancy, thus making five instead of three children by the first wife. Then the logical conclusion must be, taking the history as a guide, Ebenezer's two wives were sisters which was not the case. One thinks the first wife was Miss Nancy Gould. The second was Miss Cynthia, the eleventh child of Capt. Ebenezer Tuttle, who built the first house on Bethel Hill, that received the name of "The Castle," she born July 14, 1783, and in her young womanhood was a school teacher. Her first child was born in 1825. She is noticed in her father's will.

The grave yard record in this case, particularly the epitaph upon the first wife's memorial is interesting reading and instructive as a reminder of the final disposition of the earthy parts of all mankind:

Nancy, wife of Ebenezer Richardson, died April 10, 1824, aged 34 years. Reader behold as you pass by As you are now, so once was I, As I am now, so you must be. Prepare to die and follow me.

Ebenezer Richardson died April 2, 1871, aged 82 years, 55 days. Precious in the sight of the Lord are his saints.

Cynthia, widow of Ebenezer Richardson, died March 16, 1873, aged 79 years, 8 months, 11 days. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

The Johnny Kimball residence, by whomsoever built, was removed some years since and replaced by an attractive dwelling, erected, owned, and now occupied by Mr. Horace C. Andrews, son of a clergyman, to come from Paris, Me., where he was born. The old Kimball house was removed to a side street, easterly of the Academy, where it may be seen in a very dilapidated state, "without hope in the world," the worst wreck of a home, by far, that can be found on the hills, a most excellent target for camera shooting, particularly by those who know the history of its former occupants and descendants.

Mr. Kimball, as a singer, with family were noticed in article No. 36, (Sept. 2, 1893). His grave memorial and that of his wife may be seen in "God's half acre lot," located near the cemetery and at the covered bridge over the Androscoggin river, and are inscribed as follows:

John Kimball Died March 2, 1863 Aged 82.

"I am the resurrection and the life, he that believes in me though he were dead yet shall he live."

Louise, Wife of John Kimball, Jan. 11, 1781, Jan. 7, 1873.

"There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God."

By the second marriage, George Chapman had two sons, one of whom was named Angeline G. Chapman and came to the Bethel Academy, where he was converted, yet active in domestic, successful in studies, whose presence

SEARCHLIGHT CLUB OF RUMFORD

To Help Crippled Children.

Contributions Gladly Received.

One of the most worthy objects which the Searchlight Club has ever interested itself in is the one which they are now engaged in, and that is, the raising of money in behalf of the Hospital for Crippled Children located at Portland, which was refused an appropriation at the last legislature. This hospital has been founded for about a year and has received quite a large number of crippled children who could not be treated in any other way on account of being children of no means. A bill was before the legislature to appropriate a sum of money for the maintenance of this institution but was vetoed by Gov. Plafie, therefore, it is dependent upon private charities and it is necessary that $20,000.00 be raised before the 26th of April in order to continue the hospital and the different clubs and charitable organizations throughout the State are trying to help out the cause.

In our own town the Searchlight Club are trying to help in some way this most worthy object. The club earnestly solicits the aid of every citizen in this move and requests that the subscriptions may be in the hands of the Club before the 15th of April. Any member of the Searchlight Club will be most glad to take any offering that a person wishes to make. It is to be hoped that Rumford will respond in the same open hearted way in which it always responds to all calls for help and do its part in the effort to help the poor crippled children.

CLAN CHISHOLM INSTALLS OFFICERS.

On Monday evening, at the K. of P. Hall, Rumford, Clan Chisholm held its annual installation of officers. Mrs. McMaster was the installing officer and the following officers were installed:

President, Mrs. Lydia Milledge; Vice Pres., Mrs. Wm. Gregor; Sec., Mrs. Mary Dows; Recording Sec., Mrs. Emma Russell; Treas., Mrs. B. McLaughlin; Chap., Mrs. J. McKinnon; Adm., Mrs. Margaret Robertson; Conductor, Mrs. J. McKinnon; Asst. Con., Mrs. J. McKinnon; Grand Marshal and Miss Jeanne McFarlane; Grand Marshal and Miss Jeanne McFarlane.

Following the installation of the officers, a presentation speech was presented by Mr. J. T. Tordahl and wife, who were recently married, with a paper read by Mr. Tordahl, although the present was a great surprise to him, responded gracefully and thanked the clan in a few well chosen words. Following this an informal dance was indulged in, Walter Duff and Morris Farthing made. Chief Rankin and Miss Laidge led the grand march followed by the wife and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Tordahl and their two sons of the clan, refreshments were served of sandwiches, tea, cake and fruit. The affair was voted a perfect success by those present.

SOCIAL DANCE AT BETHEL.

Last Friday evening, Ottawa Hall was the scene of a very pleasant social dance. The music was furnished by Herrick's orchestra and every one present pronounced it one of the best yet. Bethel is proud of this orchestra and is certainly proving a drawing card on all occasions.

EASTER LILIES.

I desire to call the attention of the public to the fact that I have a choice supply of Easter lilies and most cordially invite any and all would be purchasers to see to come in and examine them.

I also have a lot of carnations and would be glad to have the people call and examine one.

A. VAN DEN KESCKHOVEN, Bethel, Maine.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF G. R. WILEY.

Order of Eastern Star, Bethel, Me.

Resolved: Whereas it has been our heavenly Father's will to call our brother, G. R. Wiley, from this earthly home to see beyond, we are resolved that life is but a preparation. Death is not a sleep, for 'tis but a sleep from which we wake beyond the skies. Resolved: That to the dear ones left, we extend our sincerest sympathy and we weep with them.

"A day-and you will meet; A night-and you will greet."

Resolved: That we send a copy of these resolutions to the family of the deceased, and that we publish the same in the Oxford County Citizen.

Mrs. D. R. Hastings,
Dr. T. H. Wright,
Mrs. A. Van Den Kerkhofen, Committee on Resolutions.

The afternoon session was opened at two o'clock and the first matter of business was the election in regard to the date for the meeting of the Pomona with Upton Grange. The date decided upon is Friday, June 23. The members will go on the morning train Thursday, leaving the train at Bethel, and arriving twenty-eight miles to Upton by stage. The return home will be made Saturday.

A fine program opened with a well sung song by the committee of Pleasant Valley Grange with Miss Mildred Brown at the piano and Mr. H. P. Dennison leading.

State Master Stetson gave a much enjoyed address on the subject of the Grange, R. A. Grover, Master of Bethel Grange gave a reading, due the Hon. Mr. H. P. Dennison's songs were much enjoyed by all, the songs were, Rock Me to Sleep, as an answer he sang Easter Service. Rev. Mr. Hays of Bethel Mountain Grange, Waterford made a few pleasant remarks for the good of the Grange, he also gave two readings. The parting hymn was sung by Pleasant Valley Grange. A vote of thanks was extended to Pleasant Valley Grange for its generous hospitality and to State Master Stetson. The next meeting will be held at North Bethel, on the first Tuesday in May.

PLEASANT VALLEY GRANGE.

Pleasant Valley Grange celebrated its 25th anniversary the 25th of March, and the Grange is now growing in membership and interest. The lower floor of the Grange hall has just been fitted up for a dining hall, and is now an attractive room.

The officers of the Grange are as follows—Master, G. A. Grover; overseer, Rios Brown; lecturer, H. P. Dennison; steward, Clarence Barker; assistant steward, Almon Tyler; chaplain, Harry Reed; treasurer, Mrs. W. A. Farwell; secretary, Miss Grace Farwell; gate

DO YOU EAT MEAT?

The popularity of Penley's "Blue Tag Brand" hams, bacon, lard, pork loins, sausage, frankfurts, etc., put up in a strictly sanitary plant at Auburn, Me., is demonstrated by their large and constantly increasing sale.

The expense, difficulty and extreme care taken by Mr. Penley in preparing the "Blue Tag Brand" pork products selected from the finest country pigs makes them such an exceptionally superior quality that once you get a taste you will never go back to the ordinary kind.

Penley's lard is "Open Kettle Rendered," thus retaining all the shortening qualities and will go much farther than some other brands.

HEART THRILLING GEMS.

LEGEND OF THE LILY

The lily is a song that swayed Unheeded in the air,
A murmur from a holy maid
Who blent it with her prayer,
She crooned above the manger low
A melody so pure
That while the ages come and go
It over shall endure.

The waxen blossoms, angel white,
Are as the faith of her
Who bowed her head in sorrow's night,
A humble worshipper.
The golden glint the chalice shows
Is but a little part Of the trust sublime that glows
Within the mother heart.

The glory of each tender hue—
Its gold and white and green—
Is as the love that rises true,
All perfect and serene.
The lily is a song made up Of prayers, smiles and tears And holds deep in its gleaming cup
The worship of the years.

The lily is a song that lives
Forever and for aye
And by its beauty holds and gives A blessing to the day.
A stately song, a kingly song,
A song that shall endure Through all the years and ages long—
The song of hope made sure.

HE IS RISEN.

Sweet the chime the bells are ringing,
Sweet the carol the angels sing;
Risen is our Lord most glorious,
Over sin and death victorious.

He is risen—tell the story Wafted from his throne of glory:
From the bonds of death set free—
O, grave, where is thy victory!

Angels, strike your harps of glory:
Waft, ye winds, the joyful story
While with happy voices we sing, Praises to our risen King.

THE BREATH OF SPRING.

After the clouds, the sunshine
Is brighter than ever before, Peeping in at the windows,
A welcome guest at the door.

Its hasty gliding our pathway, Hasting the buds into bloom,
Pink and white and scarlet,
Scattering a rich perfume.

It is the breath of spring, God gives us,
A balm for all our woes;
Warming hearts that are growing cold Mid scenes of the winter snow.

Let the gentle breeze of springtime Fan the flame that is dying within,
Into life that is brighter for sorrow,
'Tis God's love that will cleanse from all sin.

In your garden are many roses,
Some of them are white and some are red.
Truly I am very fond of roses,
But I want them now, not when I am dead.

Don't wait to show me your affection,
When the earth is piled above my head;
In your garden there are many roses,
But I want them now, not when I
am dead.

Why wait until my labors ended?
Don't you think it better if you said:
"Please accept this little bunch of roses,
You want them now, not when you are dead."

For in your garden there are many
roses,
And your blossoms, like our years,
are sped;
I am very fond of roses,
But I want them now, not when I
am dead.

CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Made Safe by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Granville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Changes of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's
Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength never forget to tell my friends what
Lydia E. Pinkham's
Vegetable Compound
has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—Mrs. CHAS. BARKLEY, R.F.D., Granville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's life has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing woman's life such as indigestion, dyspepsia, nervousness, irregular menstruation, periodic pains and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1911.

Maine, unlike many of her sister States, wisely wages a political campaign but only in two years, and though no political campaign is due this year, yet a campaign to be and must be fought with results which will stamp their impress upon the future, and make sure for the peace and unity of our own State but to a greater extent than anywhere else, the nation as well.
Maine has the benefit of all the experience that have been fought in this State for a score of years.

True to the traditions of the State, the good men and true of the old time, who have, since the dawn of our republic, been a part of our nation, and in all that is high and noble, and pure. True to their conviction that the character of our citizenship may be read in the character of our boys and girls, and that the character of the people of each community is the product of the character of the schools, they have placed themselves, not only in the front of the State but in the front of the nation.

There have always been the lawless for every law since discovered the birth in Eden's Garden, and since the crime at which any definite law has been aimed has never been entirely prevented, as the evil of intoxicating liquors has continued to more or less of an extent in Maine despite Maine's prohibitory law.

While this is true, and while liquor always was and always will be sold in all States as long as it is manufactured, yet, all intelligent and honest people, who have had any chance to fairly compare the situation in Maine with that in licensed States, will admit that conditions are vastly better here than there. Fairness demands this admission and any other claim must own the charge of invidiousness and bias the character of some unworthy claim.

The essence of the law, as found in the allied liquor interests, the drug stores and the unscrupulous politicians, have earnestly and consistently sought to convert the world to the contrary and bring about the overthrow of a condition in Maine that has enabled the Old Time True State to stand in the forefront of conservatism of States, and not only set the pace for much of the moral and civic reform that has been the outcome of the nation, but, and her example, has enabled her to stand in the forefront of the world's history.

Now as to the campaign Maine has for many years been a poor market place for the dealers in intoxicating liquors, not only so but her influence throughout the length and breadth of the nation has created a sentiment of probi-tion which has been a real barrier to the liquor traffic and of the efforts of the liquorists and dealers. For all this time there has been a constant warfare waged against the prohibitory law of Maine because of these conditions. The first victory of these liquorists was secured by the passage of the law, and the second by the passage of the law, and the third by the passage of the law, and the fourth by the passage of the law, and the fifth by the passage of the law, and the sixth by the passage of the law, and the seventh by the passage of the law, and the eighth by the passage of the law, and the ninth
by the passage of the law, and the tenth by the passage of the law, and the eleventh by the passage of the law, and the twelfth by the passage of the law, and the thirteenth
by the passage of the law, and the fourteenth by the passage of the law, and the fifteenth by the passage of the law, and the sixteenth by the passage of the law, and the seventeenth
by the passage of the law, and the eighteenth by the passage of the law, and the nineteenth by the passage of the law, and the twentieth by the passage of the law, and the twenty-first
by the passage of the law, and the twenty-second by the passage of the law, and the twenty-third by the passage of the law, and the twenty-fourth by the passage of the law, and the twenty-fifth
by the passage of the law, and the twenty-sixth by the passage of the law, and the twenty-seventh by the passage of the law, and the twenty-eighth by the passage of the law, and the twenty-ninth
by the passage of the law, and the thirtieth by the passage of the law, to that end in this campaign, and if we would still maintain our honored place as the initial and leading state in the warfare against this, the world's greatest curse, we must quit ourselves for the battle and use every honest means to bring about the victory which every honest man and daughter of the Old State honestly hopes and we trust confidently expects to win.

We have explicit confidence in the people of Maine to maintain the honored place bequeathed to them by their fathers, but we must face conditions as they are, like all States, we have a large body of fighting citizens, who have no special interest in Maine, or any other State, and whose votes may be controlled by money, and as suggested, our enemies have the money, and if we are victorious against the liquor traffic, the State will be ours.

DEATH OF MRS. P. W. TORREY OF DIXFIELD.

The funeral service of Mrs. P. W.
Torrey, whose death occurred Monday, April 10, was held at her late home on Maine street, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. About ten days before her death, Mrs. Torrey was taken suddenly ill with what was thought to be prosopnea, but later was determined to be the grip with complications. Her condition was not considered critical, and her recovery was expected. Therefore she was greatly surprised and regretted to sit up the following day. For days she had been suffering from a stroke of paralysis, which paralyzed her left side, and left her in an extreme state, from which she never recovered.

After passing away Monday, P. W.
Torrey, a widow, Mrs. Torrey was formerly Miss Annie Verrell of Auburn, daughter of the late Cyrus Verrell. She was a graduate of the Farmington State Normal School, class of 1892, and was for many years a successful teacher in the public schools of Andro-scoggin County. Mrs. Torrey was in religious, a Methodist, but was a regular attendant of the P. W. church, there being no church of her faith in the town of her residence. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and was a devoted and faithful member. About twenty years ago she married P. W. Torrey, becoming the foster mother of two small boys, left motherless by the death of Mr. Torrey's first wife. To these boys she became a devoted mother, living to see them grow into manhood.

She is survived by a husband, a son, W. Fred, two step sons, Richard and Len, a brother, Bert Verrell of Auburn, and a sister, Priscilla Torrey. Mrs. Torrey was well known in this community and will be sadly missed by her many friends.
Rev. M. S. Haines of Bangor, pastor of the Baptist church, conducted the service. The graves were reserved and buried in the cemetery. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance. The many beautiful flowers spoke words of appreciation of the life and character of the departed sister. The interment was at Green wood cemetery. Mrs. Torrey was about fifty-five years of age.

Have "Good Luck" Each Baking Day

For "luck" lies mostly in the flour. The wise cook uses William Tell and knows her bread will be perfection—her cake a marvel of delicate lightness—her pastry tender and flaky.

William Tell Flour is made from Ohio Red Wheat—wheat which has no equal. There is only a limited supply—enough to go around among the housewives who have learned the value of perfect flour.

Order your sack today.

William Tell Flour

It is made from the finest of wheat and is the only flour that is so pure

POEM.

Written for Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis
C. Higgins' 25th wedding anniversary.
Fifty years have passed away,
With all their joys and sorrows,
And friends have gathered to wish you health,
And many bright tomorrow,
May your hearts be as light as years ago,
When the future looked bright and cheery,
Without a cloud to darken your lives,
And your footsteps never weary.
May the years that have passed Seem like a dream,
And a new life begin tonight
Without a care or sorrow,
And your hearts be as light,
May all the friends that are gathered of here,
Be always staunch and true
And cheer with kindly word and deed
The years that are left to you.

May the rest of your life be always as bright,
As the little piece of gold,
Surrounded by friends and neighbors Whom love will never grow cold.
And when the shell comes some day,
As it comes to every one,
May all that are left be able to say,
"There was nothing left undone."
Elizabeth E. Carey.

If Mothers Only Knew

When children are cranky, fretful and peevish it does not signify that they have bad tempers (it shows that there is something wrong with the child which is not able to explain, and which the mother—If she Only Knew—could easily and quickly cure. Mothers, study your child's symptoms if cranky, peevish, nervous, grits the teeth, wets the bed, picks

High Pressure Days.
Men and women alike have to work recessantly with brain and hand to hold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society, more numerous. The first effect of the pressure is to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the nervous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. From personal knowledge, we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose. It acts on all the vital organs, builds up the whole system, and fits men and women for these high pressure days.

PORTLAND, - MAINE.

We are ready for business. We invite new patrons and shall appreciate a call from every old customer of this store.

We are in a position, through our close affiliation with some of the largest New York manufacturers to offer goods of the better grades at lower prices than most stores. Mr. Lewsen, who has for about 20 years been engaged in buying, manufacturing and retailing ladies' garments, will continue as buyer for this Company. He is now in New York gathering up novelties and sample garments, similar to those that were shown at our Formal Opening, which took place Thursday, April 6th, 1911.

We cordially invite you all to come in and look over the pretty things.

The R. M. Lewsen & Co.'s stock of Fall and Winter goods and High Grade Furs were as assumed by us at a small fraction of their cost and is offered to the ladies of Maine at correspondingly low prices.

WOMEN'S AND MISSES SUITS

Our $12.50 Suits

Are Exceptionally Good Values. For the amount of money invested, we do not know of better Suits than we offer you here at $12.50. Made of good plain wool Serge, with good satin lining, stylish, medium length coats and medium wide skirts. Perfect fitting suits at $12.50.

Suits at $15.00

Are Actually Worth More. There are none better to be found, fewer as good, as the Suits we are now showing at $15.00. Both women's and misses' sizes in self colored stripes of Men's wear worsteds, mostly navy and black. Some are braid trimmed, excellent value at our price—$15.00.

Modish Suits, $22.50

Ladies' Suits of neat striped effects of men's suitings. They have all the severe lines of perfectly plain tailored Suits. The linings are of Skinner satin, the sleeves are new and smart, the skirts are plaited below the knee. All who like a rich, plain effect will admire these Suits at $22.50.

Our $17.50 Suits

Very Smart Styles. Dressy Suits of handsome striped worsteds and hair line striped serges. They have natty French back and notched collar, revers inlaid with satin. Sides of skirt and bottom of coat are trimmed with wide black braid—splendid style, moderately priced at $17.50.

Suits at $20.00

Nicely Tailored Suits. These Suits come in all regular sizes, besides the extra sizes for stout women. Beautiful plain tailored style, which gives the long, graceful lines so much desired. Made of gray mixture cloths, French serges, and fine worsteds, half fitted backs, smart collar effect. Our price $20.00.

Trimmed Suits $25

Women's, misses' and stout women's sizes in this line. Tailored and trimmed Suits of men's suitings, serges, and worsteds in light, medium and dark effects, also in plain navy black, Copenhagen and tan. A style to suit every taste. A big assortment from which to choose. Our price $25.00.

STUNNING SUITS AT $30.00.

These are fine Suits of French Serge in selected shades of navy, tan, Copenhagen and black. The styles are stunning, coats are artistically trimmed with wide braids outlined with silk soutache braids. Skirts are trimmed to match the coat. Styles that are not seen at all in an ordinary display. Our good values at $30.00.

A party was given at Grand Army Hall, Wednesday evening by Miss Myrtle Buck and Miss Mildred Parlin, for the special benefit of the boys who are at home for the college vacation.

Twenty were present, Lewis Keen and Philip and Albert King, being the special guests of honor, other guests were Misses Addie and Charlotte Olles, Grace Dudley, Mae Bennett, Rose A. Morphy, Helen M. Barnes, Lala B. Haskell, Sara I. Swift, Verma Howe and Messrs. Merion Miller, Harry M. Shaw, Edward E. Shaw, Raymond B. Shaw, Mr. Dennison, Mr. Locke and Mr. Adams and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Buck.

New Hall has been repaired at last. A dash of hard place has been put in throughout the hall and stairway, ceiling whitened, steam pipes covered with aluminum paint, the walls in the outer rooms tinted blue and on the walls of the hall is a fine "cat meal paper" in a neutral brown tint. It all looks fine.

EAST SUMMER.

Fred Barrows, while working in Stephens' barrel mill, had the misfortune to saw three of his fingers, one of which was entirely severed from his hand. Dr. Marston bound up the other two, and hopes to save them.

Winter still lingers in the lap of spring. A lively little snow storm came Sunday.

Ernest Stearns has come to live at his old home, Elmhurst. His many friends are glad to welcome him back. He has had charge of a shoe store in Springfield, Mass., for several years.

It was "ladies' night" at Hilditch's College last Tuesday evening, when a party of invited girls attended an exhibition of Neger Eastman's post card projector, a wonderful little instrument that will enlarge a post card view to three and one-half feet. Photographs were also enlarged in the same way, and to make very lifelike. The views are shown on a screen, similar to a stereoscope.
